Walking with Others in wisdom and love. A series of Sunday evenings in Kilbride Presbyterian Church Hall at 7pm. As a community of God's people, we are all broken and in need of help, love and support from others. Just as Jesus came to serve and walk with the broken, so we are too, yet we often don't know how. This series is for people who want to reach out to others who might be struggling but are not confident in helpful things to say and do. Please join with us as we journey with each other side by side.

4th March: Engaging with varying views of human sexuality Rev Mairisine Stanfield (1st Bangor); 8th April: Engaging with anxiety (Mark Kernohan, The Big House); 13th April: Engaging with people of different faiths (Claire Arian, Hamsayeh International).
