Local Events

Presbytery Celebration Service on Sunday 8th September in Muckamore Presbyterian at 7pm Speakers: Gary & Mary Reid missionaries in Kenya
Theme: Message from the tractor seat.

Repair Café Antrim & Newtownabbey. Repair Cafés help people to get stuff fixed for free – stuff that might otherwise lie unloved at the back of a cupboard or end up in landfill when it could be brought back to life. The idea is to encourage people to think about repairing and reusing things, instead of throwing them away.

Come along to an informal information session and find out how you can get involved. You'll hear from representatives from Repair Café Belfast, chat with other volunteers and learn about the repair café concept on Tuesday 10th September 7.30-8.30pm (tea & coffee from 7pm) in Ballyclare Town Hall.

Free to Be an event for all Christian women to come together, whatever circumstance or season of life they are in on Tuesday 8th October 7.30-10pm in Wellington Presbyterian, Ballymena. As Christians we believe that in Christ we have been set free but often we don't live as if that's true. Speakers: Cathy Madavan and Bekah Legg explore how we can see ourselves from God's perspective and get a clearer vision for what God had in mind when He uniquely created 'me'. Tickets £5. Speak to Claire McDowell or book directly at www.careforthefamily.org
